Copyright notice regarding the ASRS Preferences and Trends (PAT) Survey and trending data

The 2017 PAT Survey is provided solely for the educational interest of the American Society of Retina Specialists membership. The data reported represents the opinions and preferences of the survey respondents alone and does not necessarily represent any official opinion of the ASRS.

All responses and data analyses are the sole property of the ASRS (copyright 2017, American Society of Retina Specialists, all rights reserved). Publication and/or use of the data are not permitted without prior written approval from the PAT Survey managing editor; email susan.raef@asrs.org.

May we release your contact info to exhibitors? ☐ Yes ☐ No

A business card or other acceptable form of identification listing your company (media outlet) and editorial job title must be sent with this application or presented to registration staff before you can be given media credentials. Freelance reporters must provide a letter of assignment or an article with your byline from an appropriate publication. For questions, please refer to the Media Policies and Guidelines at www.asrs.org/annual-meeting/media-guidelines

Media are prohibited from attending social events and the ASRS Business Meeting.

I have read and agree to the ASRS 35th Annual Meeting Media Guidelines.
