11th Annual ASRS Film Festival

The Annual ASRS Meeting Film Festival, chaired by Brett T. Foxman, MD, invites you to prepare your film entries and contribute to this wonderful tradition of excellence in film. Film producers will compete for the coveted Rhett Buckler Award, an impressive 24-carat gold-plated statuette, custom-sculpted by R.S. Owens & Company, manufacturer of the famous Oscar. The competition will culminate with an awards ceremony at the Gala Dinner. The deadline for online submission of entries is June 22, 2009.

Members of the ASRS, The Macula Society, or The Retina Society may submit up to two films as the First Author (Presenting Author). Film producers do not need to attend Retina Congress 2009 to participate. Films submitted by members not in attendance will be charged $50 per entry.

Film submission will take place through the online abstract submission system on the Retina Congress 2009 website. Review the technical requirements for videos online and submit your abstracts at www.asrs.org no later than June 22. Your completed video needs to be received by July 17, 2009.
