

ASRS

American Society of
Retina Specialists

Special Agent Christian Jurs

Special Agent Jurs graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Penn State in 1994 and was a Fulbright Scholar at the University of Zagreb. He served as an officer with naval intelligence for four years before leaving the Navy and joining the Naval Criminal Investigative Service as a Special Agent for approximately two years. He left NCIS in 2000 to open the Jacksonville Field Office for the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Inspector General. As part of the Jacksonville Field Office for the past 24 years, Agent Jurs has investigated a wide range of Medicare and Medicaid fraud throughout Florida and the United States.