CONTINUING MEDICAL EDUCATION CREDITS

The American Society of Retina Specialists is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to provide continuing medical education for physicians. The American Society of Retina Specialists designates this live activity for a maximum of 8.75 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

This course has been awarded 3.25 JCAHPO credits. This course is not sponsored by JCAHPO; only reviewed for compliance with JCAHPO standards and criteria and awarded continuing education credit accordingly; therefore, JCAHPO cannot predict the effectiveness of the program or assure its quality in substance and presentation.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Following this course, you will be able to:

- Address how current changes in the health care system will affect patient care and discuss compliance as it relates to quality clinical care.
- Cite current reimbursement and compliance issues.
- Maintain appropriate chart documentation and compare eye codes and equivalent E&M codes.

TARGET AUDIENCE

Retina Specialists, Ophthalmologists, Retina Technicians, and Practice Staff

PROGRAM COMMITTEE

The American Society of Retina Specialists would like to thank the Program Committee for the hard work in developing a superb slate of speakers to address current topics affecting your practice and providing answers and tactics that can be used immediately following the conference.
