Anne Hoang

Anne joined PRISM Vision Group in 2025 as Chief Operating Officer. Before PRISM, Anne served in diverse leadership roles at McKesson for the past twelve years, including COO for Sarah Cannon Research Institute, SVP of Operations for Texas Oncology (supporting 580+ physicians and 7,000+ employees) and practices in CA, OH, OR and WA, and VP of Revenue Cycle Management for The US Oncology Network. She also spent a decade in consulting for BCG, Deloitte and Towers Perrin (Watson), largely for biopharma and medical device clients focusing on integration, growth and commercialization efforts.

Anne earned her MBA from The Wharton School (University of Pennsylvania) in health care management, and BA from Swarthmore College (studying economics and French literature). She is based in Nashville, TN, and deeply enjoys live music with her husband and two children.
