

ASRS

American Society of Retina Specialists

Phillip Le

Phillip Le is the director of clinical research at Austin Retina Associates, with over 17 years of experience in clinical research, spanning site operations, and research infrastructure development. He has been directly involved in building and scaling multiple clinical research sites actively participating in 100+ clinical trials ranging from phases 1-4. His work frequently requires aligning interests across physicians, research staff, and administrative leadership.