

ASRS

American Society of Retina Specialists

Sabin Dang, MD

Sabin Dang is a distinguished Vitreoretinal Surgeon at The Retina Institute in St. Louis, Missouri, since 2017, with post-graduate training at the Kresge Eye Institute for residency and Tufts Medical Center/ Ophthalmic Consultants of Boston for fellowship.

His innovative spirit is evident in his involvement in numerous patents and publications related to ophthalmology, showcasing his commitment to advancing medical knowledge and practice. Dang's career also highlights significant IT and leadership experience, reflecting a versatile skill set that spans clinical expertise, research innovation, and technological solutions in healthcare.

His numerous awards and recognition within the medical community underscore his impact and dedication to the field of ophthalmology.