Sharam Danesh, MD

Dr. Sharam Danesh attended the University of British Columbia, completed his residency at the University of Ottawa, and his retina fellowship at the University of Iowa. After fellowship, Dr. Danesh's first position was in academic setting for 2 years at Queens university. He then joined a retina practice in Phoenix Arizona. After 6 years, he founded his solo retina practice in Phoenix. Over the past 13 years, his practice, Phoenix Retina Associates has grown to 4 locations and 4 retina specialists.