Newman J. Sund, MD, PhD

Newman J. Sund, MD, PhD, is a retina specialist at The Retina Care Center, which is affiliated with Prism Vision Group and McKesson. He sees patients in offices located across Maryland, Pennsylvania, and Delaware and resides in Baltimore.

Dr. Sund earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from Columbia College at Columbia University. He then attended the University of Pennsylvania, where he received both his medical degree and a PhD, with his doctoral research focusing on the molecular genetics of the gastrointestinal tract and endocrine pancreas. Following his graduate studies, Dr. Sund completed his ophthalmology residency at the Scheie Eye Institute at the University of Pennsylvania. He further specialized with a vitreoretinal fellowship at Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak, Michigan.

With a strong interest in information technology as it impacts the physician, Dr. Sund chairs the Clinical Technology Physician-Led Council at Prism Vision Group. Outside of his professional responsibilities, he enjoys spending time outdoors with his family, engaging in activities such as camping, fishing, snowboarding, and scuba diving.
