

ASRS

American Society of Retina Specialists

Tiffany Harrison, CPA

With more than 20 years of experience, Tiffany now serves as a principal for CliftonLarsonAllen, LPP, in the Dallas, Texas location. She is an analytical financial professional with diversified breadth of knowledge in the health care and non-profit industries, including critical access and acute care hospitals and associated foundations, long-term care, medical clinics, health care insurance, emergent services, community organizations and more. Her proficiency in health care accounting, non-profit accounting as well as the health care revenue cycle make her a vital member of the Texas Healthcare team.

Technical experience

- Hospitals and health systems
- HUD and single audits
- Federal Qualified Health Centers (FQHC)
- State and local government
- Nonprofit entities
- Employee benefit plans
- Skilled nursing facilities
- Continuing care retirement communities
- Other health care organizations

Education and professional involvement

- Bachelor of arts in accounting and management information systems, summa cum laude, from Washington State University, Pullman, Washington
- American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
- Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants
- Certified Public Accountant in the states of Texas and Oregon
- LeadingAge